

North Dakota Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics District Dietetic Associations

Welcome to NDAND! Participating in district dietetic associations is a great way to get involved with NDAND activities, to network with other dietitians in your area, and to obtain continuing education hours. Information about each district is provided below. For more information, please contact the current district president listed in the NDAND Board of Directors information under the Members Only section of this website.

Bismarck-Mandan Dietetic Association

The Bismarck-Mandan Dietetic Association (BMDA) meetings are generally held monthly, September through May. The meetings begin with a business meeting followed by a one hour continuing education program. At BMDA, we also incorporate a little fun with our education and networking opportunities. There is a small membership fee and you must be a member of AND to be a member of BMDA. The BMDA welcomes dietitians not only from the Bismarck-Mandan area but from surrounding areas such as Hazelton, Linton, Steele, Wilton, Washburn, Center, Hazen, Beulah, New Salem, Dickinson etc. Our members are very active and enthusiastic with promoting sound nutrition practices in their communities that continue to establish the registered dietitian as the nutrition expert. Please contact Shelly Porter, BMDA president at 701.530.7871 or spotter@primecare.org for more information about BMDA and upcoming events.

Fargo-Moorhead Dietetic Association

The mission of the Fargo-Moorhead Dietetic Association is to be an advocate of the dietetic professions, serving the public through the promotion of optimal nutrition, health, and well-being.

FMDA is an excellent way to network and become familiar with other dietetic professionals in the area. There are many opportunities to become involved in the association by serving on a committee or as a board member. In order to join FMDA, you must be an AND member and pay an annual membership fee; non-FMDA members may attend meetings but will be charged per continuing education credit. For more information about FMDA, meeting times, and leadership opportunities, please contact the FMDA President: Kelsey Bratlie at 701.212.9134 or Kelsey.Bratlie@sandfordhealth.org.

Greater Grand Forks Dietetic Association

Greater Grand Forks Dietetic Association (GGFDA) serves the upper Red River Valley area. GGFDA holds a membership social each fall. During the 2012-2013 year there will be several networking as well as educational opportunities for free CEUs on a variety of topics. We also encourage our members to attend events presented by the University of North Dakota Department Of Dietetics. If you would like to become a member, please contact Brenna Kerr (current GGFDA President) at brenna@polarcomm.com. You must be a member of AND to become a GGFDA member; however, non members are always welcome and are charged per credit.

Jamestown-Valley City District District

The Jamestown-Valley City District serves the communities of Jamestown and Valley City and the surrounding area. The schedule of our meetings changes as the needs of our members change. Currently, our meetings are scheduled three to four hour morning sessions on a quarterly basis and announced via email. Speakers are invited to provide continuing education prior to a business meeting. A total of six credits of continuing education is our goal between September and May. The offices of President, Program Coordinator, and Secretary/Treasurer are elected each spring. Our members also have the opportunity to participate in community and state activities to promote nutrition. Currently, we have 6-12 members. A small membership fee per year is required for AND members or per meeting for non AND members. We welcome new members, so please contact Larissa Musgrave at 701.845.6453 or larissamusgrave@catholichealth.net if you are interested in attending our meetings and obtaining continuing education.

Minot District Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics

The Minot District Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics (MDAND) serves the community of Minot and the surrounding area. Our members live and/or work in the following communities: Minot, New Town, Rolla and Bottineau. Monthly meetings are generally held September through May each year with notification of dates and times communicated to members via e-mail. MDAND offers continuing education opportunities at the meetings with a total of 6 hours of continuing education offered yearly. Non AND members are welcome to attend continuing education opportunities and a nominal fee is charged for continuing education credits. MDAND also sends out information on educational opportunities in the community or via audio conferences. Annual election of officers is held each May. The contact person is President, Cory Doucet and she can be reached at 701.857.5755 or by email at cory.doucet@trinityhealth.org.
